

Supplement to Testing Plan

3DB Communication Inc. (“Applicant”) files this supplement to inform the Commission of its intent to study changes in antenna orientation. No new equipment will be used, and no emissions designators, authorized power, or other system operating parameters will change. However, Applicant will experiment with different antenna orientations to obtain additional performance observations.