

3G Wireless STA Application

Exhibit A

Explanation of Emission

This prototype High Definition RF Camera will use four, 8 MHz bandwidth COFDM modulation transmissions with a 1 MHz guard band between each. It will operate at 100 mW using an omnidirectional antenna. The demonstration will be conducted at an exhibit booth at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Operation will cease in the event of any complaint of interference and will not resume unless all interference is remedied.