DISMISSED-WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Mr. Myers:

This refers to application, File No. S-2931-EX-97, for a Special Temporary Authorization.
File No. 5735-EX-PL-97, for Experimental Authorization.

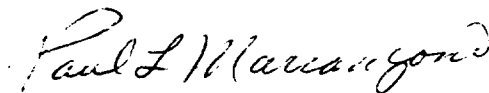

Due to a revision of the Commission's marketing rules, it is no longer necessary to obtain a license to demonstrate equipment designed to comply with Part 15 of the FCC's Rules at trade shows or at business, commercial, industrial, scientific, or medical locations, provided the following notice is displayed in a conspicuous location on, or immediately adjacent to, the device:

This device has not been authorized as required by the rules of the Federal Communications Commission. This device is not, and may not be, offered for sale or lease, or sold or leased, until authorization is obtained.

Please refer to the Report and Order "Revision of Part 2 of the Commission's Rules Relating to the Marketing and Authorization of Radio Frequency Devices", FCC 97-31, ET Docket No. 94-45, released February 12, 1997 for the complete text of the revised marketing rules.

Your application fee will be refunded to you.

Sincerely,

Paul L. Marrangoni
Chief
Experimental Licensing Branch
