

Purpose of Operation

Bald Eagle nesting grounds are located near a large windmill farm. Accipitor Radar Corporation is using a system to protect birds and especially Bald Eagles from colliding with the rotors of the windmills. This will consist of the radar location of flying birds noting height, speed, and direction of flight. This information will be used to automatically adjust the operation of the windmills to eliminate bird collisions with rotors.