

From: David Hinkley

To: Nimesh Sangani
Date: October 29, 2020

Subject: Additional Information Request

---

Message:

1. No. The satellites AC7b and AC7c have been sleeping and not in use. A request to use them in November 2020 for an experiment has been received.
2. The satellites are at 429x436 km. They are expected to re enter within 12-24 months, depending on the solar activity.