

Frequencies/channels of operation in the indicated bands will be chosen on a non-interfering basis to commercial signals found within those bands. Power levels from base stations can be reduced below 20W if ERP values are considered to be too high.