

ATTN: Anthony Serafini:

After reading the rules regarding confidentiality and considering the experiments involved we see no need for confidentiality at this time, as the experiment itself will finally define what needs to be confidential.

There is no contract number but is a private company in product development stage.

Please let us know if you require any other information to move forward.

Thanks

Rich