Ms. Nguyen:

Thank you for your inquiry below.

In reply, please note the following:

- BAE Systems believes the coordinates on the pending application are correct.
- The test site is on Joint Base Cape Cod
- The confusion is likely related to the "City";
 - o The entrance to the base (which is located on Connery Avenue) appears to be located within the town of "Bourne, MA";
 - o The coordinates (41-40-4 N.Lat.; 70-30-37 W.Long.) appears to fall within the town of "Mashpee, MA";
- Based on the above, can you please let us know:
 - o Which City you believe should be listed on the application (Bourne, MA or Mashpee, MA)?
 - o Whether BAE Systems should amend the application to change the City, or whether the Commission will make the change internally?

Best regards,

Jeff Rummel
Attorney for BAE Systems
