

To all concerned:

ISX was launched aboard an Electron Curie launch vehicle on December 16, 2018.

As of February 1, 2019, no telemetry beacons have been received and it appears that the spacecraft is not able to transmit. Investigations are underway to determine the cause of the malfunction.

ISX Call Sign: WI2XTI

Frequency: 437.15 MHz; 5840 MHz

Alicia Johnstone

Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo

RF Representative