

04/05/2013

Overview of need for experimental licenses

Cisco Systems is requesting an experimental license to complete compliance testing and engineering evaluation of the Airspan radio modules operating in the 2.5 – 2.689 GHz band

The testing will be confined to the Cisco engineering labs and a majority of the work will be done in shielded chambers.

All necessary coordination will be done prior to any operation outside of our test chambers.

David A Case NCE, NCT
Cisco Systems Inc
330 523 2139
davecase@cisco.com