04/05/2013

Overview of need for experimental licenses

Cisco Systems is requesting an experimental license to complete compliance testing and engineering evaluation of the Airspan radio modules operating in the  $2.5-2.689~\mathrm{GHz}$  band

The testing will be confined to the Cisco engineering labs and a majority of the work will be done in shielded chambers.

All necessary coordination will be done prior to any operation outside of our test chambers.

David A Case NCE, NCT Cisco Systems Inc 330 523 2139 davecase@cisco.com