Hello,

Just reaching out again, as I have not heard anything about why this application was denied.

It was file number: 0441-EX-CN-2020

As far as I can tell the application meets all NTIA and FCC requirements. Could I please have some more information as to why this was declined? I have reviewed the application and cannot find any problems with it. If you could provide me with the exact problems, I can adjust the application to meet the requirements.

Let me know if you need anything else from me.
