

Exhibit 1

This Modification Application is being filed to advise the Commission that the contract previously associated with the W12XIC is no longer active, and the license will support Internal Research and Development (IR&D) activities moving forward.

Accordingly, because the license will no longer support contract activity, it is requested that the Station Class be changed from "XC" to a new appropriate Station Class.