Tony:

Please make a record of the information in the email below in ELS concerning entity conversion from a Corporation to LLC. I believe the email is sufficient. Let me know if you think we need any more information from the licensee.

Thanks,
Nnake

Subject: Copper Valley Wireless LLC -- Experimental Radio Service station WE2XKM

Dr. Nweke –

We are writing to follow up our telephone conference from earlier this afternoon regarding the conversion, effective February 7, 2013, of Copper Valley Wireless, Inc. (“CVWI”) from a Corporation to a Limited Liability Company and the change in name to Copper Valley Wireless, LLC (“CVWL”). Pursuant to Section 10.50.570 of the Alaska Statutes, CVWL and CVWI are deemed to be one and the same and “the existence of [CVWL] is considered to have commenced its existence in the jurisdiction in which [CVWI] was first created, formed, or incorporated, or otherwise came into being.”

The license involved with this change of name and form of organization is Experimental Radio Service station WE2XKM (File No. 0309-EX-RR-2013). It is respectfully requested that the Experimental License database be updated to reflect the change in licensee name from Copper Valley Wireless, Inc. to Copper Valley Wireless, LLC and the form of organization from Corporation to Limited Liability Company.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter,

Richard D. Rubino
