

The project will demonstrate the General Atomic Lynx radar system. The requested authorization will be used to provide communication essential to the project, but is not part of the capability demonstration.