

1. Brief description and purpose of Demo/Testing to be performed (Narrative Statement)
 - a. Verification of LTE communications between multiple phones to multiple stationary and mobile base stations on vehicles. All have associated backhaul to a central node. Verify proper integration into vehicle systems and basic radio functionality. Vehicles will be stationary and mobile during operation. Testing will be intermittent as each of the systems undergo verification over the start through stop dates.