Dear Mr. Young:

We have obtained exclusive access to the facility for the five-day period for testing as explained in the application. There is a chance that we may need to continue the testing at a later time, but we have now amended this application to request only the five-day testing period. If need be, we will file a new application for additional testing in the future. Thank you so much for your consideration of our request for expedited processing; apologies for any confusion.
