Message:

In response to the request for information issued July 29, 2014-
"Which single sideband emission note (E028 through E038) from the NTIA Manual applies to your transmissions?"

Harris responds that note E038 is applicable to the transmissions.
E038--When a single sideband emission is used from the various emissions shown on this HF assignment, the carrier frequency will be set to place the center of intelligence at the assigned frequency.
