

From: Mike Elmer

To: Behnam Ghaffari
Date: March 04, 2015

Subject: FCC File No. 0247-EX-ST-2015

Message:

The application asked why a STA was necessary. The guidelines for a STA explain that "STAs are intended for experiments that will last no longer than six months." I was just restating the guideline to show that our current project meets the condition, not suggesting that we were going to operate for 6 months. It would have been more clear to have simply stated that the experiment is short term and beginning in the near future, which is why we are requesting the STA.