

The purpose of this modification is to increase the 1 kilometer radius around the Wasco Butte location to 40 kilometers to accommodate a new ground testing location.

All other technical and geographic information remains the same.