

The purpose of this modification is to increase the 50 kilometer radius around the Boardman location to 120 kilometers to accommodate a new testing location for manned aircraft.

All other technical and geographic information remains the same.