

Each of the frequency requests for the UHF and S-band frequency range are for individual operating channels. Kratos will not be operating all those channels at the same time. During test one UHF frequency channel and one S-band Frequency channel will be utilized for the test