

This is a 13m reflector antenna system. It is being developed and constructed.

We need to radiate a CW signal at 2120 MHz with the antenna pointed at zenith away from the GEO arc.
We will measure the receive subsystem PIM level.

We must determine the amount of transmitter noise and intermodulation products in our receive band introduced by transmitting at full power at our upper transmit band edge frequency.