

This experimental license is in support of the MFOM / HSA program. The purpose of this program is to evaluate and verify the use of radar for precision height fuzing applications across several platforms.