

The purpose of this license is to get approval for a new radar system being developed by L3Harris. This is for internal research to the company, and will be used to inform future designs. The intent is to fly a small drone with the radar mounted underneath, and the operator will comply with all FAA guidelines. All tests will be operated in a controlled environment.