

Exhibit 1

Leidos, Inc. requests renewal of the WI2XOR license in light of continued activity under the contract specified at Special Condition 4.

Leidos also confirms that operations authorized under the license continue to consist of both ground-based and airborne transmissions (see graphic below) at each of the cities specified on the license, within the areas of operation specified on the license for each such city.

