

We will be conducting channel sounding measurements using channel sounder from National Instruments at 28 GHz. The measurements are for NASA project. The RF front end is able to transmit a maximum of 25dBm power and we will be using 17 dBi rectangular horn antenna.