OK, then they filled out the form incorrectly: They answered the question of whether or not name remains same after transfer and they said "no." But I will correct it.

The name on the license for WB2XFS should continue to be "TRW Inc." The application was to transfer control of TRW Inc. from TRW Inc. to Northrop Grumman Corporation. After the transaction is completed, TRW Inc. will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrop Grumman Corporation.

What about WB2XFS (5TC92)? This was a transfer of control from TRW and is listed as Northrop Grumman Corporation. Should this be added to your list for name change to Northrop Grumman Systems Corp.?

Carl:

Per our conversation on Wednesday, attached please find the following information:

1. Confirmation of the filing fee payment for the renewal application for WA2XNX (File No. 0116-EX-RR-2002).
2. A letter requesting the cancellation of WA2XOM, which was filed today.

Also, the correct file number for the current authorization for WB2XGK is 0028-EX-TC-2001.

Thank for your assistance with these matters.

Vance
