Mr. Kennedy,

I have submitted updates to the applications listed below that state the exact location of each GPS booster station. I don't understand your comment on the calculations. I submitted separate calculations for each station. Is there some kind of problem with them?

Dear Mr. David Twine:

The geographical coordinates for applications 0233, 0250, 0252, 0253 and 0254-EX-PL-2006 are the same. Please explain why this is so and how the calculations submitted relate to each of the device locations.
