To Whom It May Concern,

We request under 47 CFR 0.459 that the exhibits submitted to the Federal Communications Commission for the following file numbers be withheld from public inspection indefinitely.

File Number: 0169-EX-ST-2013
Call Sign: WG2XVY
2 Exhibits titled: "STA SPP Full Description Details" and "Raytheon Prototype Radar RADHAZ Report"

File Number: 0572-EX-PL-2013
Call Sign: WG9XJL
2 Exhibits titled: "Attach1 Radiation and Power Density Info" and "Attach2 System Description and Purpose"

Below are statements addressing items (1) through (9) of 47 CFR 0.459(b):

- (1) Identification of the specific information for which confidential treatment is sought;
 - Our customer, the US Department of Defense, has requested that the exhibits be removed from public inspection. The exhibits contain proprietary trade secrets.
- (2) Identification of the Commission proceeding in which the information was submitted or a description of the circumstances giving rise to the submission;
 - An experimental FCC license was obtained to conduct developmental testing and demonstrations for our customer.
- (3) Explanation of the degree to which the information is commercial or financial, or contains a trade secret or is privileged;
 - The information is proprietary and identifies how we are able to meet and exceed key customer requirements in a competitive market.
- (4) Explanation of the degree to which the information concerns a service that is subject to competition;
 - The information is important to our customer and their mission as it relates to the current and future products we are developing.
- (5) Explanation of how disclosure of the information could result in substantial competitive harm;
 - Our competitors may be able to use the information to their benefit by incorporating similar aspects into their design, or to hinder our efforts to obtain competitive contracts. The end result might be harmful to our company and give our competitors an unfair advantage.

- (6) Identification of any measures taken by the submitting party to prevent unauthorized disclosure;
 - This was an inadvertent disclosure. Our submittals should not have contained this information.
- (7) Identification of whether the information is available to the public and the extent of any previous disclosure of the information to third parties;
 - The information has never been available to the public, except in this instance.
- (8) Justification of the period during which the submitting party asserts that material should not be available for public disclosure; and
 - We request that the information be withheld from public disclosure indefinitely as these are trade secrets.
- (9) Any other information that the party seeking confidential treatment believes may be useful in assessing whether its request for confidentiality should be granted.
 - None.

Sincerely,
