

From: Craig Mauldin

To: Behnam Ghaffari

Date: July 12, 2013

Subject: FCC File No. 0657-EX-ST-2013

---

Message:

The reason for obtaining the following license is to perform an engineering check out test for digital mobile radio (DMR). The purpose of the test is the overall functionality performance of DMR, including verification of the antenna beam patterns and transmission capabilities of the radio waveforms. The end goal of the test is equipment characterization in order to support a possible installation digital microwave link between facilities.