

The Regents of the University of California is a government entity and should be fee exempt.