

1 Need for the regular license

We need to obtain experimental results to achieve the following goals over the span of next two years

- Multiple generations of Sensor IC development
- Integrate the transceiver functionality with sensing functionality
- Demonstrate specific applications such as tracking

Since the above listed objectives require a time span of two years, a six-month temporary license would not completely serve our purpose and hence, we request for a regular license valid for two years.