

Fee Exemption Request

We are installing antennas that map ocean surface currents off the California Coast as a part of the state mandated Coastal Ocean Currents Monitoring Program. In addition, the data from this project may be used for student project studies associated with San Francisco State University. We request that the fee be waived.