

Transmitter antenna information: the experiment will entail placing receive antenna at various locations within the 4km radius of the two transmitting antennas. For both transmitting antennas, the beam width is 65 degrees, vertical plane is 90, horizontal plane will vary based on location of the receiver.

Based on FCC TOWAIR results no FAA clearance is needed for the antennas.