Point-of-contact 2:

Denyse Aldrich

denyse.m.aldrich@saic.com

I apologize for the delay in submitting this response. I did not receive the e-mail correspondence dated December 8, 2009 due to an error in my e-mail address included with the original application (the correct address is 'neal.r.whatcott@saic.com'). I went to the FCC site several times to check status (always 'pending') and did not notice that there had been correspondence. It is clearly my error and my misunderstanding of your procedure for contact - I do hope that my application can be re-activated and processed.

Thank you,

Neal Whatcott
