

Project description for File Number 0245-EX-CN-2020

The purpose of the Anomalous Propagation Communications System (APCS) project is to study using anomalous propagation to:

- Increase UAS link range/capacity
- Decrease the number of UAS relays required
- Improve communications effectiveness in the tactical environment

Combine APCS and Dynamic Spectrum Access capability with minimal platform cost