From North American Region Product Compliance, Mark Arthurs

In addition to the emission information which I added to the on line application two additional questions were asked.

1) What does the product do.

Answer

The equipment is wireless microphone and it works as transmitter.

We are going to demonstrate its performance at AES show in N.Y.

2) What FCC part will apply to the product.

Answer

FCC Part 74 subpart H.

The product is planned to be demonstrated beginning October 3, 2007 at the AES show and we hope that you are able to review and approve the application as soon as possible so that we can plan accordingly

Best Regards

Mark Arthurs
