

Fee Exemption Request

We are conducting research on measuring ocean surface currents and waves using HF Radar. This research may be used for projects associated with University of South Carolina student projects. We request that the fee be waived.