

United States Department of State

*Bureau of Political-Military Affairs
Directorate of Defense Trade Controls*

Washington, D.C. 20522-0112

In Reply Refer to
DTC Case TA 3730-03A

Mr. Andy Bell
Star Dynamics Corporation
383 North Liberty Road
Powell, OH 43065

JAN 09 2009

YOUR LETTER DATED: October 14, 2008
AGREEMENT FOR: Technical Assistance–Amendment
FOREIGN LICENSEE: Government of Israel Ministry of Defense–Israel
COMMODITY: Technical Data and Defense Services Related to Design
Fabrication and Installation of the Mobile Instrumentation Radar Tracking System (MIRTS) Radar–Expand Scope; Add Hardware; Increase Value;
Novate Applicant

Dear Applicant:

The Department of State approves the request as identified subject to the limitations, provisos and requirements stated below as well as the requirements contained in the International Traffic in Arms Regulation. The amendment may not enter into force until these requirements have been satisfied.

Sincerely yours,

Kevin Maloney

Director

Office of Defense Trade Controls Licensing

LIMITATIONS, PROVISOS AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS:

1. This authorization expires February 28, 2014.
2. Export or temporary import of hardware in furtherance of this agreement by separate license is authorized. If used, separate license, submitted in accordance with Section 15.1 of the Guidelines for Preparing Agreements, must reference this agreement and must not exceed $7,218,750 over the life of the agreement to include shipments to date. This proviso does not limit the use of separate authorizations for repair and replacement purposes.

In Reply Refer to
DTC Case TA 3730-03A

3. Dynamic RCS measurement MUST NOT be discussed, offered or released.
4. AESA radar hardware, software, or other technical data MUST NOT be discussed, offered or released.
5. Other limitations, provisos, or other requirements contained in the basic agreement, as amended, except as modified hereby, continue to apply.