(Request to Extend Special Temporary Authority WP9XEF authorized under File No. 1672-EX-ST-2019 for One Month)

The KeyW Corporation (“KeyW Corp”) respectfully requests that the Commission extend its existing 24 day special temporary authority (“STA”) under Call Sign WP9XEF – see FCC File No. 1672-EX-ST-2019 -- for one additional month – until December 1, 2019, to allow continued experimental testing of an innovative airborne radar service in Dahlgren, Virginia. With this extension request KeyW Corp is reducing the requested testing radius (centered around NL 38-20-10; WL 77-02-17) from 15 kilometers to 10 kilometers. KeyW Corp will continue to adhere to the Special Conditions as issued on the original STA.

For the Commission’s records, this Attachment C may be public and does not require confidentiality. However, it does not change the confidentiality required for those exhibits for which confidentiality has already been obtained (e.g., Exhibits 1-3). We continue to request that these exhibits remain confidential. Except as noted below, however, these exhibits and attachments continue to remain correct and accurate.

The stop-buzzer contact information as previously provided- Primary: Mr. Nathan Binkley (937-681-0904), Alternate: Mr. Wes Cox (443-745-5924) remains accurate.
