Purpose Statement

Applicant is a designer and manufacturer of high-speed experimental data waveform modems. This proposed application is to facilitate on-the-air, real world tests between the applicant's two test sites as well as the proposed mobile stations on a non-interfering basis with existing users. The requested frequency coverage is necessary to allow test over a number of frequencies with variable propagation conditions and with the inclusion of mobiles, variable distances.

Thanks you