

University of California Davis-Bodega Marine Laboratory is requesting a fee exemption for its STA and Form 442 license application based on its non-profit status as a State owned educational and research organization.