Brad Zielie is the main technical POC for these, so maybe better to leave him on the application. I will be the main POC, as was my predecessor Dave LaChapelle, but have little technical knowledge.

Behnam, my apologies. I am new to this position and am trying to stay on top of things. During the transition period, the UPlicensing email address was not being checked, so the need to renew this did not get completed in a timely manner. I tried to use the "Respond to Correspondence" link, but do not have the needed info to be able to respond on from the website.
