

From: BRAD ZIELIE

To: Behnam Ghaffari

Date: July 10, 2012

Subject: FCC File No. 0214-EX-RR-2012

---

Message:

Many of Union Pacific's locomotives and special-purpose rail cars are equipped with automated tracking systems and equipment, including Global Positioning Systems (GPS) receivers. The installation facilities where these systems are installed and tested are opaque to GPS signals.

This testing is ongoing and will increase when the government mandated Positive Train Control (PTC) equipment starts being tested.