

Fee Exemption Request

The two CODAR SeaSonde HF radars to be installed at Cape May, NJ and Cape Henlopen, DE are experimental units for determining the feasibility of monitoring coastal surface currents at the Delaware Bay mouth as part of the U.S. national component of the international ocean observing system (IOOS). We request that the fees associated with this application be waived.