

On January 31, 2020, the Cygnus resupply vehicle S.S. Alan Bean, unberthed from the International Space Station, raised orbit to 465 km, and at 22:30:10 GMT, deployed Swampsat-II, at 465 km and 51.6 degrees elevation.

University of Florida reported initial contact with Swampsat-II, at 03:23 GMT, on February 2, 2020, VHF up, UHF down.