

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment addresses and corrects an error in the output power and Effective Radiated Power (ERP) levels proposed in the original application. Instead of an output power of 10 watts, the correct metric for the transmitter is 2 watts. With this adjustment and addressing system losses and system gain, the ERP level should be 2 watts.

We apologize for this error. We appreciate further consideration of the amended application.