

FAA Antenna Sketch Statement

There will be multiple test locations of two types. Locations will be existing buildings and the antenna will not exceed six meters above the roof top. Cranes may be used immediately adjacent to existing tower structures that are FAA compliant and our proposed antenna height will not exceed the overall height of the existing tower structure. Therefore, all test locations will be FAA compliant.