

FCC form 442 Exhibit 1

INMARSAT phone to be used as part of Year 2000 international communications contingency plan for Nycomed Amersham/Amersham Pharmacia Biotech operations.

Program includes training and testing of phones on or about September 9, 1999; then as deemed necessary based on test results and, in the event of foreign or international network disruptions, based on business needs on and after January 1, 2000.